

Poema de sentidos

Introducción

Esta es una actividad de expresión escrita que requiere movimiento y observación, esto ayuda a que los estudiantes recarguen la energía y a que se mantengan lejos de la pantalla durante unos minutos.

En esta actividad los estudiantes deben levantarse de sus escritorios para mirar por la ventana. Deben componer un pequeño poema acerca de lo que pueden ver.

Referencia de duración del seminario web: 31:15 – 35:45

Nivel: Cualquier edad, a partir del nivel A2 +

Duración: De 10 a 20 minutos.

Objetivo: Animar a los estudiantes a ser observadores y ayudarlos a que recarguen su energía.

Preparation:

- None

Procedure:

- Ask students to take a short break and either go outside their house or look out of the window (an open window if possible).
- Give them a 5-minute maximum time limit to do this.

- While they look out the window, tell them to think about what they can:
 - See
 - Hear
 - Smell
 - Feel
- When the students get back to their desk, put them into pairs or groups and ask them to tell their peers about their experience.
- Next, give them the sense poem structure from the materials below and ask them to complete it.
- Once they have completed their sense poems, you can ask them to share them or send them to you. Note: You can make a digital book of these to share.
- You could also ask students to add images. These could be photographs with older students, or younger ones can draw what they see.
- Share the book of poems with all the students.

Materials:

Sense poem

Using poetry

- Any authentic material exposes students to some 'real English' and can be very motivating for your students, provided they are supported throughout the task. The other great thing about poems is for students to have the opportunity to see the language work creatively and freely. Find out more about how to use poems.

Kids and poetry

- Poetry is a great tool to use with your learners as it helps practise not only listening, speaking, reading and writing skills all together, but stretches learners' imaginations too. Explore these ideas from Jo Budden for using poetry with younger children.

Getting started with online teaching

- Many classes and school systems all over the world are taking steps to offer lessons online. However, stepping into the digital world overnight can be challenging for many teachers. This guide is useful for teachers and teacher educators who have little experience of online teaching and need some advice on where to start.
